A good many working men are not frightened by the threats of the boycott, and there will be more of them as the days wear on.

There are still a few Republicans in Pennsylvania, and in Pittsburgh they cut her loose last Saturday night. General Beaver made a speech that will draw honest voters to him.

WORKMEN who have no grievance against the morning newspapers, and who are free to say so, are intimidated into withdrawing their subscriptions. Is this the way that labor champions the rights of labor? It is the right of every man to say and read what newspaper he pleases, but the pirates do not admit this right.

When merchants are threatened with the boycott they ought to understand what that means. The boycott is as unlawful as burglary or highway robbery. If a merchant were threatened with the loss of the patronage of burglars and highwaymen if he did not yield his rights or give up his property, it would not take him long to decide. The status of the boycotter is not a whit better.

The pirate ship which is endeavoring to live by setting this community by the ears has drawn support in subsidization and advertising from people who don't believe in piracy. Now it assumes a more frequent form and threatens to drive out of the community everybody who does not come to the support of its extraneous venture. People who don't like this kind of thing will have nothing to do with it in any of its forms.

A persistent effort is being made by interested persons to make it appear that the Wheeling newspapers are hostile to organized labor. There is nothing in the course of the Wheeling newspapers, either in their published utterances or in their relations with the Typographical Union, to warrant the assertion. The Wheeling newspapers have maintained not only the right but the expediency of organization among wage-earners. They have had the independence to criticize what they thought was wrong, but the printed record which every newspaper makes will show where the Wheeling newspapers stand on this question. They will probably not permit schemers to drive them into false positions now.

In the offices of the Wheeling newspapers the Typographical Union has had full sway, and continued to have until it walked out two weeks ago and began a bushwhacking campaign to force itself back on its own terms. It was because the newspapers of this city did not give it trouble with the union that they came to have in their employ some men who were incompetent and others who worked just enough to keep body and soul together. In no other business is this permitted, and in many printing offices it is not allowed. It was submitted to here because to object to any part of it was in all probability to bring about unpleasantness and perhaps strife.

BOYCOTTING GETS A BLOW.

An Important Case at Buffalo—Boycotters Held for Trial.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 25.—In the U. S. District Court this morning John H. Dunn, by the use of force and intimidation to secure the passage of the United States Constitution. They pleaded not guilty, and were held in $1,000 bail each to appear at the November term, at Auburn. The specific charge is that they conspired to injure John H. SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

TO A RETURNING CHURCH PARTY.

Their Carriage Struck by a Fast Train and Ground into Kindling Wood—Three Persons Killed, Two Outraged—The Driver Hurled Forty Feet.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 26.—This morning a shocking accident occurred on the New York, Providence & Boston railroad, at the village of Poquoson, Conn. Benjamin Gardner, a farmer, his wife and the wife of her son James, while riding home from church in a one-horse wagon, were struck by the Westbound Express train, going at the rate of 50 miles an hour.

Mr. Gardner was hurled a distance of forty feet from the crossing, receiving fatal injuries. His wife was killed outright, and Mrs. Joseph Gardner died before she could be removed. The horse was killed and the wagon broken into splinters. The accident happened at a crossing at 10:00 more or less on the railroad, which is boarded up at that point, the engineer on the Express did not see the party till within 20 yards of the crossing.

GEORGE'S CAMPAIGN.

The New York Labor Candidate for the Assembly.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Henry George campaign has begun to assume dignified proportions. At Mr. George's office there have already been received the signed pledges of 15,000 voters to support him at the polls. It is claimed that 10,000 more names are on the list that have not been turned in. Each of these names is being recorded, and their owners will be the mediums through which the campaign documents, now being printed, will be distributed. To raise money to carry on the campaign an assessment of 25 cents has been laid upon the members of trade organizations in the city. There are 80,000 of these members, which means $20,000 for a starter of the fund. Over $200 was raised for the same purpose at the convention that nominated Mr. George.

But a chief source of the sinews of war will be the labor organizations outside the city. The St. Louis trades bodies have already pledged $50,000 to the cause, and words come from other cities that liberal contributions will be made. A copper bronze medal of Mr. George has been made, to be worn by his adherents during the campaign. The revenue from the sale of these medals will be no inconsiderable sum, will go to the campaign fund.

A thorough organization of the various trades in this city makes the carrying on of the campaign comparatively easy. The trade unions have simply to be transformed into campaign clubs, and the carrying on of the campaign machinery for conducting the fight, which the regular party organizations would have to pay an immense sum to duplicate and support.

LABOR CONVENTION.

The Attempt of the Outsiders to Capture the Chicago Meeting.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The Cook County United Labor Convention had an exceedingly stormy session, lasting nearly four hours, this afternoon, and accompanied nothing. A determined effort was made on the part of outsiders to capture the convention, and the attempt called forth an equally determined effort to prevent its success. It was only possible in the four hours' session to elect a temporary chairman and get through a motion to adjourn. Two hours were consumed in a rowdy fight for temporary chairman. Charles G. Dixon, being finally declared elected. There were 741 delegates in the hall.

Fully 200 other persons to whom no tickets had been regularly issued, occupied places intended for delegates. Several of the delegates, it is asserted, were parties to the scheme to capture the convention. It is declared that each of these men after going in themselves collected the tickets of as many as possible of the delegates, and then they proceeded to distribute the cards among outsiders. This process was repeated until 200 phony delegates were inside and attempting to carry all the viva voce votes their own way. The convention was declared adjourned subject to the call of the temporary chairman. He will probably reconvene the convention Tuesday.

THE FREE TRADE CHAMPION GETS THE NOMINATION FOR CONGRESS.

TOLDO, Sept. 25.—The Democratic Congressional primaries in this county today were the closest and bitterest in the annals of the party. The issue was between Hon. Frank Hard and M. J. Enright, and the delegates, 60 in number, were selected to the convention which meets in Clyde next Tuesday. For two weeks canvasses have been made by the two candidates that eclipsed any recent election where vast party interests were involved.

MYSTERIOUS POISONING.

A Family Suddenly Taken Ill—All Got Over.

St. Louis, Sept. 26.—A special from Mexico, Mo., says Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Gibbs, who live ten miles southwest of here, on the Hill farm, became violently ill yesterday morning from the effects of poisoned vegetables at breakfast. The two men when they became sick were at work in the highway, and were both overcome at the same time with griping pains and violent vomiting.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED.

In Pittsburgh by General Logan—A Tribute to Beaver.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 25.—The Republicans opened the gubernatorial campaign here to-night with a torchlight parade and an immense mass meeting at Music Hall. About one thousand were in the procession, which traversed the principal streets and then escorted the speakers to the meeting. The hall, which has a seating capacity of six thousand, was filled long before 8 o'clock, and when the speaking began there was not standing room.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON'S GAMES.

Chicago and St. Louis Still Hold the Lead in Their Respective Associations—News and Gossip About Players—Yesterday's Contest—Beach Defeats Ross.

The league situation remains unchanged, Chicago having a good lead over Detroit and the latter now being out of New York's range. Philadelphia holds fourth place, Boston fifth, St. Louis sixth and Kansas City and Washington bring up the rear. This season has exceeded all others in lack of variety, each club holding on to its position, except Detroit, with monotonous tenacity. Detroit held first place for seventeen successive weeks, Chicago being second for a like period. New York has been third for twenty weeks and Philadelphia fourth for nineteen.

CLUBS.

Table with 10 columns: Club, W, L, T, P, G, A, D, S, E, R. Rows include St. Louis, Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Kansas City, Washington, New York, Cincinnati, and Baltimore.

NOTES.

The Detroiters were the first to make 1,000 hits.

Galvin lost but one game in nine he pitched against the Athletics.

Miller and Spiegle, of this city, accompanied the Athletics on their late disastrous trip.

New Orleans parties have guaranteed $50,000 for a team to enter the Southern League next season.

Newark lost but four games out of twenty-four in August. Smith and Pyle each pitched in two losing games. Knownwin was all pitched in.

Pete Browning will positively not be found with Louisville next year. Manager Hart is now looking around for a trade. Browning will play better ball in a new team.

The salaries to be paid to Washington's "Big Five" next season, according to the Hartford Post, are Mack $2,500, Keel $2,000, Gleason $1,750, Shock $1,750 and Henry $1,800.

Cross, the excellent Altoona catcher, will keep his brother company in Louisville next season. He is quite as good a backstop as his brother, who resembles him very much in style and action.

The Boston papers are agreed that it is worth many thousands of dollars to the Boston club to have Glasscock as captain of the team.

Parcell never in his life played the ball he is playing. He has brought forth a new batter, but indifferent fielder. But this year his fielding has been superior to his batting and his base running—a newly developed quality—as good as anybody in the country has done. He has started the wheeling Baltimore team running bases.

On Saturday the Steubenville and the Wheeling club at the bat, the Steubenville refused to play on account of darkness. The game was given to the Wheeling club by Umpire McKinnon, by a score of 9 to 0.

Louisville has broken the record for this season, having lost thirteen straight games, one at Cincinnati before starting East, and twelve in succession on their trip to the West.

The Cincinnati team, which has been doing some hot kicking and according to them, about all the men will be fired on their return home. Hart and Hecker, it is claimed, are not on the best of terms, and there is considerable talk of Hart's removal.

CINCINNATI DEFEATED.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 25.—The Brooklyn should have whitewashed the Cincinnati to-day, as the home team was completely at Henderson's mercy. Mullane pitched a strong game in the first five innings, only two hits being made. He weakened, however, and in the last three innings he was hit seven times. A fly catched by Swartwood and a difficult shot by Pinkney and McPhee were the chief features.

BARTHOLOMEW'S BREAK.

Investigation Into his Affairs—Some Trusts Not Abused.

HARTFORD, Ct., September 25.—The investigation of George M. Bartholomew's affairs is going on. Some trusts which were thought to have been disturbed, are found intact. The Orphan Asylum is said to-day not to be out a dollar on his account.

Facts which have so far come out show the following irregularities:

Holyoke Water Power Company, not quite $300,000, for which its officers say they have ample security.

Charter Oak Life Insurance Company, $327,000, for which Bartholomew subsequently gave securities, now unmarketable, which may prove to have value if the company relapses there. Bartholomew said they were worth the debt.

Union Construction Company, $40,000.

Union Manufacturing Company, paper amounting to $150,000, of which, it is now said, Bartholomew took the proceeds. This, however, is contradicted by a near friend of his.

There is a small indebtedness regularly entered on the books of the Hartford Silk Company, most of whose $100,000 of paper is now in the works. The company was not authorized to issue whole matter.

Just before the breakdown it was claimed the concern was making money, but this may have been to help its credit and facilitate the sale of its paper. This paper is widely scattered. One Boston man who has information about the law of the company is not sure.

It is Bartholomew's endorsement, and is only worth what that is worth. The company is hopelessly bothered by debt. The amount of paper issued by father and son is estimated at $100,000.

Strong efforts are being made to save the Schuyler Electric Company, and it is believed they will result successfully. Bartholomew's endorsement is on over $100,000 of their paper. There is also a small name paper of George M. Bartholomew, the amount of which is unknown.

The amount of the Union Paper Company's paper is not exactly known. A great mass of reports given out as facts are not authentic, and the whole matter cannot be unraveled for a long time yet, or until Bartholomew throws more light on the case. It is believed that he has begun to do this. The attachments put upon his property within the past few weeks will all disappear under the law of Connecticut, as soon as his insolvency is declared by the Probate Court next week.

NO MORE SHOCKS.

At Charleston Yesterday The Congregations Worship in Their Churches.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 26.—No shocks occurred here last night. The weather is fine here to-day and most of the city congregations attended services in their own churches. The open air worship on the battery continued and was largely attended. The city is crowded with excursionists.

Through examination shows that the damage to the venerable and beautiful Huguenot church is about $8,000 and the congregation contemplates sending their pastor, Rev. Dr. Vedder, to the North to appeal to the Huguenots through the country for contributions to make the necessary repairs. This congregation was among the heaviest sufferers by the earthquake.

The signal office here applied to the weather bureau at Washington for indications covering the period of Wiggins' predicted earthquake. To-night the local dispatch was received from General Hesse.

"There are at present no indications of any severe atmospheric disturbance between now and the 30th. Timely notice will be given you should any change appear."

A Murder at Vicksburg.

VICKSBURG, Miss., September 25.—A fatal shooting affair occurred here at 10 o'clock to-night, in which John Fironi, a popular Italian oyster-vender and owner of the St. Charles oyster saloon, was killed by Dan Keefe, late bar-tender in the St. Charles saloon. A misunderstanding occurred between the two, when Fironi threw a tomato-auce bottle at Keefe, who responded with a shot from a lightening Colt.

In the smoke and excitement it was thought that Fironi had escaped, but a few minutes later it was discovered that Fironi was lying dead behind the counter. Keefe was arrested. Fironi is one of the most popular foreigners in the city, and his death has caused much excitement.

He was married to a woman named Mary, who responded with a shot from a lightening Colt.
